

A lot of cities and towns have one newspaper. By not having more than one newspaper only one view is available. Now you want to make it possible for a TV station to own newspapers. Are you so naive that you believe that this isn't a way of controlling views on important issues? The Christian fundamentalists are already brainwashing their followers. What happened to standing up for the rights of all people by leftwing, center and rightwing. Your selling out our country to people who can control the news.
